Foundation of the State

In early art a different crown symbolizes authority in each of Egypt's two regions. Rulers in Upper Egypt wear a white crown; rulers in Lower Egypt wear a red crown. Worn together, the two form the Double Crown, symbolizing the unification of the 2 regions .

c 3100 BC \rightarrow 3066 BC

Chronology of Ancient Egypt begins with the Reign (c 3100 BC - 3066 BC) of MENES, first King of the 1st Dynasty.

Egyptian yr begins with rising of star SIR IUB but as their civil yr contained exactly 365 days the Egyptian were compared to rise the so called solar cycle, a period of 1460 years from we know to the next when the civil year coincided with the Roman one. Such a coincidence occurred about AD 140 but at is uncertain whether the 1st cycle started about 2780 BC or 4240 BC
